

Lost Company

Sunset Sons

John Graham Williams
I've got something to say
You left this place without us
On a cold December day

We're all survivors
But one of us is same?
We're all survivors
We live for a better day

I looked out this morning
And you'll never guess what I saw
Regret, hate and pity
Is that what you're looking for?

Because you sold you're life for a reason
That I'll never understand
Next time you decide to do that
I'll be there to lend a hand

We're all survivors
But one of us is same?
We're all survivors
We live for a better day

Some of us drink through the sorrow
Some of us cut by the pain
But we're all survivors
Survivors we remain

And I'll walk with you
If you walk with me
Well you said your last goodbye
Goodbye lost company

And I'll walk with you
If you walk with me
Well you said your last goodbye
Goodbye lost company

So John Graham Williams
I told you once before
How'd you leave this world without us?
Is the answer I'm looking for

And I'll walk with you
If you walk with me

And I'll walk with you
If you walk with me
Well you said your last goodbye
Goodbye lost company

And I'll walk with you
If you walk with me
Well you said your last goodbye

And I'll walk with you
If you walk with me
Well you said your last goodbye
Goodbye lost company

We're all survivors
But one of us is same?
We're all survivors

Some of us drink through the sorrow
But we're all survivors
And survivors we remain
