

Movie Scene

Sunset Sons

Skinny with an awkward smile
Quiet with a tampered style
She walked to love supreme
Oh wanna make her scream
Find a way try'na connect
I make her blush and I'll protect
She plays the boys the same
It's her rise and fall from fame

This ain't a movie scene
This ain't a movie scene

She [?] for sure
Crowd come when you want more
I'm up to let it be
Just don't tryin' confuse me

This ain't a movie scene
This ain't a movie scene

Do you wonder where you're going?
Do you question who you are?
Do you wonder where you're going?
Do you question who you are?

Do you wonder where you're going?
Do you question who you are?
Do you wonder where you're going?
Do you question who you are?
Do you wonder where you're going?
Do you question where you've been?
Guess you've made it, shot a notice
Can't you see no movie scene?
