

Bad Choices

Superchunk

I could break every bone in my foot
Kicking down at your dumb door
I could waste all my breathe asking
Lose all my early morning sleep
Wondering what for?

I could drain all the batteries
Searching for truth, searching for you
And the world will still wanna hear
We could scan every line in a script you bought for time
Keep our eyes peeled for a year

Oh, but I won't

I got a lifetime of shit decisions
I might never learn from them
But all your bad choices
Are gonna cause suffering, yeah

You gotta get out
Out and about
Meet your weird neighbors
Once in a while

Take a deep breath of the air
Or get off of your bottom stair
Stop taking pride in your white style

Oh, cause I won't

Oh, I got a lifetime of shit decisions
I might never learn from them
But all your bad choices
Are gonna cause suffering, yeah

All your bad choices
Bad choices
Bad choices

I could never forgive you them no

Oh no...
