

Lost My Brain

Superchunk

I don't know
And I can't explain
Lost my heart
And I lost my brain

I surrender to the flow of shit
That came aboard last year
I didn't learn anything from it
And I lost count of all the shame

I don't know
And I can't explain
Lost my heart
And I lost my brain

Looking for something just to hold on to
And grab their mic's when they say
Wish for people looking up at you
You better find a new [?]

I don't know
And I can't explain
Lost my heart
Oh and I lost my brain

It's an intentional thing
Making you wonder again and again
If you're the one that's insane
So grab a hold and let's make a chain

Cause I lost my brain
