

Never Too Young to Smoke

Superchunk

Famous indie bands are finding their feet
Makes you want to dance right on your seat
Young love and a stone-washed Stussy shirt
He wants to fuck, she wants to flirt

Punk rock craze, the hottest thing going
Don't look now, but your Winstons are showing
Punk rock craze, the hottest thing going
Don't look now

Return the plaque
Give the title back
The test of time is not a test
Return the plaque
Give the title back
The test of time is not a test

It is the rest
And you are what's left
And you will be nothing sooner
You will be nothing sooner
You will be nothing sooner than me

Join our pit, surf our crowd
Here's a pamphlet to show you how
Bad bands, worse jokes
But you're never too young to smoke

Everybody nods their head
I'd rather be at home in bed
But you're never too young to smoke
No, you're never too young

Return the plaque
Give the title back
The test of time is not a test
It is the rest
And you are what's left
And you will be nothing sooner
It is the rest
And you are what's left
And you will be nothing sooner
You will be nothing sooner
You will be nothing sooner
