

Your Theme

Superchunk

You walked in, said "What's your theme?"
Did a goofy step like this
Said "Now that's what I mean"
You build the stage, everybody got engaged
The barn doors opened
And the music drifted down across the scene

Oh what'd I do
To waste an afternoon with you
Eating obscure, looking at girls, shopping for jeans
Learning how to be and not to seem
Singing your theme

Hey what's your theme?
Sing it to me

Let me hear, let me hear, let me hear
Let me hear your theme
