

Rock & Roll Band

Superman Is Dead

There's a reason we standing today
Like a reason we fight for what we love
Thousand hopes in my generation, breaking down
Radio there is no distortion
Television consumed you to the bone
So i said, let's make resolution never fade
Not here for those teenage icons, we're just not them
John bo, boots and tiger prints, here we go

Coz we are rock and roll band
Born to rock
Coz we are rock and roll band
Yeah, we rock
Coz we are rock and roll band
Coz we are rock and roll now
And all these could feel it all along

There's a price for youth degradation
Don't believe in truth manipulation
Good and truth, we'll make it
Beautiful somehow
Not here for identity fight
We're just the same
Hardcore, punk, oi, skinhead, rude boys,
sing with me

Coz we are rock and roll band
Born to rock
Coz we are rock and roll band
Yeah, we rock
Coz we are rock and roll band
Coz we are rock and roll now
And all these could feel it
Upper glass, forget the past
Join and joy to sing with us
Brighter sky for tomorrow is
There for you and star
Star up high

Not here for identity fight
We're just the same
Hardcore, punk, oi, skinhead, rude boys,
sing with me

Coz we are rock and roll band
Born to rock
Coz we are rock and roll band
Yeah, we rock
Coz we are rock and roll band
Coz we are rock and roll now
And all these could feel it

Coz we are rock and roll band
Born to rock
Coz we are rock and roll band

Yeah, we rock
Coz we are rock and roll band
Coz we are rock and roll now
And all these could feel it
