

Runaway Stripper

Superman Is Dead

The night's still young and the booze is free
My friend he makes a big party
Soon we are getting there

Down the hill in this mini van
Tonight is gonna be a blast
The action just can't wait

So I drink this bottle, and the stars they look so bright
And the right direction, so we'll see another day
And we hope she'll be there, wearing just black underwear
But end up sing this song, and this is for the boys

Runaway stripper, she will never come back
Runaway stripper, she ain't never comin' back

Is there anything wrong, I don't understand
I just hoped she found her way home
Maybe she just want it more, want a better deal
Let's have a good time without her
