

Monolithic buildings from the seventies
Tense negotiations, disparities
While the empty lots cook in the sun
The treaty was agreed on but the damage was done

I'll build a kingdom where we both belong
Yesterday don't matter if it's gone
Your free trial is ending soon, either way it won't stop
Won't stop the world from turning

Frozen in the armory
Frozen in the armory
Frozen in the armory
Frozen in the armory

Roll your sleeves to show off your tattoos
He's great friends with Seymour Stein, I never knew
Master reels from Zeppelin I and II
Once the Kraken has been fed then everything's cool

And in an instant everything was lost
Seems like somebody got their wires crossed
Your free trial is ending soon, either way it won't stop
Won't stop the birds from singing

Frozen in the armory
Frozen in the armory
Frozen in the armory
Aahhh

Empty lots are baking in the sun
After some concessions the deal was done
Meanwhile there's a hunger drawing near
The Kraken is insatiable for panic and fear

I'll build a kingdom where we both belong
Yesterday don't matter if it's gone
If our time is ending soon, either way it won't stop
Won't stop the world from turning

Frozen in the armory
Frozen in the armory
Frozen in the armory
Aahhh

Aahhh
Aahhh
Aahhh
Aahhh
