Say Yes To Me

Surfer Blood

Waiting for the moon to blow Inside your window Say yes or no Im feelin The plotline shifting The cards will shuffle Now brace in malice well on everyone

Ohhh Say yes to me, say yes to me I love you dearly, so let me see With all weve been through, yeah im still here Im true blue

There was a time you sang the words all wrong To every song...however wrong...woah Your biting your tongue now Your voice restraining This ship is dark its sails are falling flat

Ohhh Say yes to me, say yes to me I love you dearly, so let me see The girl i knew, is still true blue Im true blue

Once i lived my life(i lived my life) For people all around me Filled myself with doubts(myself with doubts) Now we dont have to say were sorry(noooo)

Noone else can lick their wound The way i do, when im with you, uh-huh When i say that im true blue I hope you know, that its all true, oh-woh

Ohhh Say yes to me, say yes to me I love you dearly, so let me see The girl i knew, is still true blue Im true blue

Ah--ahh--ahhh-ahh-ahh x2
