Baby if you really love me You had better understand That the silver in your pocket Ain't no measure of a man

And though the fortunes of our fathers We aspire to rise above When you're born into a breed You're signed in blood

I'm a poor mans son
Workin' all night long
Got a bad guitar
And a simple song
You're a rich mans daughter
Look at what you've done
You went and fell in love
With a poor mans son

Baby you were born in splendor To a house of wealth and fame Your mother was a spender And you grew up on a stage

And girl you could loved for money Coulda fooled around for fame You went and took a chance On the real thing

And though the fortunes of our fathers We aspire to rise above When you're born into a breed You're signed in blood

I'm a poor mans son
Workin' all night long
Got a bad guitar
And a simple song
Look at what you've done
You went and fell in love
With a poor mans son
