Darling
Everybody knows who you are
When you walk into a room
You are a star

But lovin' you
Has put me in the spotlight too
I don't know what to do

Darling
You drove your arrow through my heart
And the hole that it left
One day will heal
But it'll leave a scar
Cos lovin' you
Has put me in the spotlight too
Oh and in your spotlight
I really don't know what to do
