Hey it dawned on me and
I see the big picture I know
On everything I love I'm the shit and I know
To do it big I gotta keep 'em out my business I know
Because these niggas like to gossip like the bitches I know
I finally get it now

What everything I love I'm the shit and I know
I run this city, wish that wasn't my position I know
These niggas softer than the pussies and the bitches I know
