

Purgatory

Takida

It's all I can say,
It's all I can do
Cause you are not alive!
You brought fear and stains
It was no place for you
But count was last somehow.
It's all you can say,
It's all you can do
Preach it right then listen
I'm ending you tonight!

R:
I cannot stand or see a word
Coming out from your mouth
Like the purgatory awaits,
And it makes me feel alive.
When you put up an honest fight
Yes, you and me decide
We're hanging on by a thread
I have a problem, live and let die,
Die!

The stars disappear,
The moonlight is gone
Sunshine, it falls to rain.
It's my turn to escape
When you force into the whole
Reach back, fall down,
My life like I'm ending this tonight!

R:
I cannot stand or see a word
Coming out from your mouth
Like the purgatory awaits,
And it makes me feel alive.
When you put up an honest fight
Yes, you and me decide
We're hanging on by a thread
I have a problem, live and let die,
Die!

Live and let die
Live and let die
Live and let die
Live and let die
Live and let die
