

Silence Calls

Takida

You and I
Always enemies
That's for sure the tide is high
And we're searching for directions
You and I

You and I
Struggling hard to breathe
I hate you and you hate me
Always longing for satisfaction
You and I

Still alive, lonely hearts beating,
Out the soul with the lies
Silence calls when we cry
Will it open up our eyes?

You and I
Counter everyone friction won but now we're sad
Still we're hoping for consolation
You and I

You and I
We will live on, live on 'til we die
Is there any comprehension for you and I?

Still alive, lonely hearts beating,
Out the soul with the lies
Silence calls when we cry
You and I
Still alive, lonely hearts beating,
Out the soul with the lies
Silence calls as we die
Will it open up our eyes?
