Sounds of laughter here comes Sunshine Smiling faces all around They possess you bless you Sunshine Now you can never let them down I say Sunshine

Sunshine, Sunshine

Is that a cloud across your smile or did you dream again last ${\bf n}$ ight

It's best you rest inside a while as blue doesn't seem to suit you right

Things ain't what they used to be pain and rain and misery Illness in the family and Sunshine means a lot to me I say Sunshine

But could it be Sunshine is drifting with midnight And lonely when everyone's gone Blue crystal spirits and gardens in moonlight Leave weak alone and bleak all quiet and grey by dawn

Sunshine Sunshine

Rising to late to chase the cold and failing to change the fros t to dew

She's trading her mood of yellow gold for frost bitten shades o f silver

Friends and lovers past and gone and no-one waiting further on I'm running short of things to be and Sunshine means quite a lo t to me

I say Sunshine... Sunshine
