Yeah... right... yeah... Uh huh Yeah... right... yeah... Turn the lights off

Maybe I forgot his birthday... Oops I meant to take him to lunch this afternoon Now his pissed off in the worst way I hope he gets over this attitude real soon

I guess I did something so wrong...

Cause my baby won't pick up the telephone...

And he ain't even coming home

And it's been so long

So I say hello operator... hellooo
Can you put my baby on the line
So that we can get together later
Cause I really want to spend some time...
Cause he won't... he won't... he won't... he won't he won't answer my call
Can you put my baby on the line

I was shopping with my my homegals Didn't expect him to act so immature He be off in his own world... I thought my baby was in so insecure

I guess I did something so wrong...

Cause my baby won't pick up the telephone...

And he ain't even coming home

And it's been so long

Maybe I should send him some flowers or a card Some candy or a letter cause his taking it so hard I should take him on a Shopping spree Let's ball out at the mall Out wine him and dine I might as well have me a ball...

I guess I did something so wrong...

Cause my baby won't pick up the telephone...

And he ain't even coming home

And it's been so long
