

Give It Up

Teddy Geiger

Shut your mouth and smile for what you don't know 'bout this now
And going hard, forcin' me to heaven hope

Maybe there's something that I'm doing
It could be something you don't know
It could be everything I wanted

You're only everything I've know
So I gotta give it up
Give it up
I've got to
Give it up
Okay, give it up
Give it up
Oh I gotta
Give it up
Give it up

I feel cooked, over tired, everything is laid back
And I would not be surprised if these completely changed

Maybe it's something that I'm doing
Lately there's been so much I don't know
There is no reason for my choosing
One I would hate to overthrow

But I gotta give it up
Give it up
Yeah I gotta
Give it up
Okay, give it up
Give it up
I gotta give it up

Put my love to the test
Put my love to the test

Go on
Give it up
Yeah I gotta give it up
Give it up
Give it up
I gotta
Give it up
Give it up

I gotta give it up
I gotta
Give it up
