

Living Alone

Teddy Geiger

Took me just a little while to finally come back here
I thought I really knocked it all
I'll be back there soaking in it, [?] dragging me someplace
Where I'm living alone

Like I was living alone
In the first place

Some things are harder or better if I could forget it
But I think I'd rather not
Sideways up in the night time, no invitations to the party
Where I'm living alone

Like I was living alone
In the first place

Like I was living alone
In the first place

Yeah, where I'm living alone
Like I was living alone
In the first place
