

Today Never Ends

Teenage Fanclub

The sunlight pours in through my windows
I travel back in time
The past's a place where chaos stays indoors
The time you borrowed arise tomorrow
Today's the day that never ends

I listen to your conversation
And look into your eyes
They transmit different information
The time you borrowed arise tomorrow
Today's the day that never ends
The time you borrowed arise tomorrow
Today's the day that never ends
Ends
