

Beyond The Wall Of Sleep

Terry Scott Taylor

Hold my hand
I'm here, my old friend
'Til you have gone
Beyond the wildwood's end
Far enough
To join the One you love

Beyond the wall of sleep
Beyond
You will shine again

In your eyes
Grow the shadows long
The season's ending
And your work is done
Your heart has known
A world to call your home

Beyond the wall of sleep
Beyond
You will shine again

Far enough
To join the one you love

Beyond the wall of sleep
Beyond
Beyond the wall of sleep
Beyond
Beyond the wall of sleep
Beyond
You will shine again

Kiss me once, and may God be with you
