

Don't deny you're walking with the beast
No place to hide where the creatures meet
Kicking back evil, kicking back the night
Run through the jungle like a real wild child
Don't rely on walking with the beast
And the creatures they feast

I can't get no higher than this
Rising up horizon baby
Get real

I don't need no heaven or hell but it's alright
As long as you're in my heart
I don't need no heaven or hell but it's alright
As long as you're under my charm

Don't deny you're walking with the beast
No grace to shine where the creatures meet
And they feast

I can't get no higher than this
Rising up horizon baby
Get real

I don't need no heaven or hell but it's alright
As long as you're in my heart
I don't need no heaven or hell but it's alright
As long as you're under my charm

I don't need no heaven or hell but it's alright
As long as you're in my heart
I don't need no heaven or hell but it's alright
As long as you're under my charm

I can't get no higher than this
Rising up horizon baby
Get real

I don't need no heaven or hell but it's alright
As long as you're in my heart
I don't need no heaven or hell but it's alright
As long as you're under my charm

I don't need no heaven or hell but it's alright
As long as you're in my heart
I don't need no heaven or hell but it's alright
As long as you're under my charm
