

All Night For You

The Angels

She gives me love for only half the night she smiles at me and then says goodbye then she's gone - baby don't go she makes want it but she won't be mine she takes my body when she's got the time that's love - you don't get love for nothing

But it's alright, I got all night
all night for you

Now when she wants it she can't be denied no one's enough to keep her satisfied but I try - God knows how I've tried my friends'r saying that she's using me but I don't mind just keep choosing me I need you - woman I don't need no one else

But it's alright, I got all night
all night for you

She lives her life out of a magazine she thinks a man is just a love machine that's all - all I wanna do so give me love for only half the night and take my body till you're satisfied take it all, take it all

But it's alright, I got all night
all night for you
