

Burn You Down

The Answer

Someone take me far from here
I got nowhere left that's clear
I'm sick of your electric face
Tuned in to watch us all fall from grace
Switch on, stand by, renew, replace
And stay away from me

I'm gonna burn you down
There's only so much more I'm takin'
I'll burn you down
You're not the only one who's fakin'

Why don't you wander left of center
You couldn't know me any better
I won't be wounded by your spell
You've got me cornered I can tell
Defuse, deny, retreat, rebel
You're just a memory

I'm gonna burn you down
There's only so much more I'm takin'
I'll burn you down
You're not the only one who's fakin'
I'll burn you down
You think you're such a born defender
No submission, no surrender
I'll burn you down
Burn you down

Burn you down
There's only so much more I'm takin'
I'll burn you down
Why can't you see the mess you're makin'
I'll burn you down (I'll burn you down)
I'm gonna burn you down
You're not the only one who's fakin'
I'm gonna burn you down
