

Call Yourself a Friend

The Answer

Return to dust
Unending lust
And I'll obey my demons
Your whisper grows but still you know
That I cannot resist you

And you call yourself a friend
And you call yourself a friend
Call yourself a friend

And so I dance through broken glass
But still you can't remember
How angels fall
How I was wrong to fly so close towards the sun

And you call yourself a friend
And you call yourself a friend
Call yourself a friend

So are you going away now
To be a million dollar charm
And I know I'm not the only one
To be tangled in your arms
Tangled in your arms

Let everyone beneath our sun
Digest my proclamation
My empty life I'd sacrifice
For one more chance to taste her

And you call yourself a friend
And you call yourself a friend
Call yourself a friend
And you call yourself a friend
And you call yourself a friend
Call yourself a friend
