

Bring Yourself Home

The Association

I'm windblown and tired from my day
The sun is goin' down and it's time to put it all away
The ice cream trucks and the noonday mothers have gone while the children rest
And now my heart feels thoughts for you but thoughts are felt to their best

Bring yourself home and kick your shoes off next to mine
Bring yourself home and we will build a better time

And on my way (on my way) it feels so good to say
We're gonna love tonight
We're gonna love tonight
We're gonna love...

I'm goin' home. The city streets just don't feel that good Yes, I'm goin' home where I keep finding more than I thought I would
We can't deny us what we want; just bein' is the test
And when I say "Hey, I'm goin' home", you gotta know I feel my best

Bring yourself home and kick your shoes off next to mine
Bring yourself home and we will build a better time

And on my way (on my way) it feels so good to say
We're gonna love tonight
We're gonna love tonight
We're gonna love...

We're gonna love tonight... we're gonna love, we're gonna love,
we're gonna love...

(Bring yourself home and kick your shoes off next to mine)
(Bring yourself home and we will build a better time)
Bring yourself home!
(Bring yourself home and kick your shoes off next to mine)
Bring yourself home!
(Bring yourself home and we will build a better time)
Bring yourself home!...
