

Rainbows Bent

The Association

(Comin' down) No I won't waste your time tryin' to rub it in (Comin' down) Won't pin you to the wall, the pushin' in (Comin' down) Just wanna say I know the feelin' why
It's all real, and it all counts when rainbows end
If she'll collapse

(Comin' down) Once I tried to shoot the moon; I missed the sky
(Comin' down) Sad surprise when I discovered why
(Comin' down) Just wanna say I know the feeling why
It's all real, every week's rainbow bend
Is just a sweet illusion

Swear I can almost hear the thinkin' in your head
Almost every mountain has a road around its throat
Nobody flies as the crow flies go, take the winding road
That leads you straight ahead

(Comin' down) They say you gotta keep your smile alive
(Comin' down) But you just get to wonder why sometime
(Comin' down) I'm only good for a little sympathy
And it's as free as all the rest
And it's for keeps, 'cause that's the game
