

I Haven't

The Bear Quartet

Silent night and I'm in it once more
I haven't been for ages and it snows
This need that's manifested in my life
Makes me neglect it

This is the last one
How many times haven't I tried to pull that one
I haven't cried in a long time
I haven't
I haven't
I haven't
I haven't

Still night doing the best that I can
To amplify what's been diminished
Coat's on something to keep me warm
Heaven knows I've gone out
