

Evil

The Blue Van

Evil can only be your friend As long as you pretend To be misunderstood

No good will ever come from burning Your bridges 'cause you're turning Yourself into ash

'Cause we're so outdated 'Cause we're so outdated If we let ourselves give into fear We might as well not even care

Evil doesn't tell me who you are It just shows me all the scars and stitches on your heart

A rotten apple just needs a sugarcoating To realize the whole thing Gets sweeter bite by bite

You're so evil

If you let yourself give in you're outdated Let yourself give into fear, you can't save it
