

Dog Almighty

The Bones

Black leather collar, hound upon a leash
Flea infested hide this urge to scratch this hard to please
I\`ve been yelled at, thrown at, trained
But no one makes my tail stand up like you my bitch in heat
I\`ve seen them all now my mind\`s set on you

Whatever you say, whatever you do
Let me be your dog tonight, and everything\`s alright
Whatever you say, whatever you do
Let me be your dog tonight, I promise I won\`t bite

This frog perspective, it really suits me fine
Long legs, stiletto heels, short skirts in summertime
You\`ve got me clawing, grinding teeth
Roll over and play dead, a mutt like you is hard to find
I\`ve had them all now my mind\`s set on you

Whatever you say, whatever you do
Let me be your dog tonight, and everything\`s alright
Whatever you say, whatever you do
Let me be your dog tonight, I promise I won\`t bite

You\`ve had me waiting, wanting, crying
Howling like a wolf but don\`t you dare to muzzle me
I\`ve bit them all now my target is you

Whatever you say, whatever you do
Let me be your dog tonight, and everything\`s alright
Whatever you say, whatever you do
Let me be your dog tonight, I promise I won\`t bite

Whatever you say, whatever you do
Let me be your dog tonight, and everything\`s alright
Whatever you say, whatever you do
Let me be your dog tonight, I promise I will bite
Bite
