Late Bloomer

The Bouncing Souls

I saw you walking past me just the other day Another heartbeat with thoughts of yesterday You looked the same, years are only time I still wonder why our hearts could never rhyme

You stood beside me, you didn't recognize me
Funny how things never change
When you walked on by a memory surprised me
Smoking cigarettes, your girlfriends by the pool
Your smell I could not forget, that's as close as I could get
You were so fucking cool

I'm no good, you're no better
Wouldn't we be perfect together?
(2x)

All I wanted was a piece of your heart You left me torn apart Fuck the rest before me and their crimes For your love I'll serve their time

I'm no good, you're no better Wouldn't we be perfect together? (4x)

I'm no good, you're no better (3x)
