

Is It In You?

The Charlatans

Is it in you
In my hunk of burning love
You're the real thing
Can't seem to get enough

Please come to set me free from these fools
Always, all night
Love replied to me through you
For all the good in the world
Love returned

Please always say what's on your mind
I am on fire
At least when I am bad
My own true karma is coming back
It's alright, I am okay
At least for today

Is it in you
In my hunk of burning love
You're the real thing
Can't seem to get enough

Please come to set me free from these fools
Always, all night
Love replied to me through you
For all the good in the world
Love returned

Please always say what's on your mind
I am on fire
At least when I am bad
My own true karma is coming back
It's alright, I am okay
At least for today

Is it in you
In my hunk of burning love
You're the real thing
Can't seem to get enough

Please come to save me from these fools (always)
Always (always)
Always (all night)

Love replied to me through you (always)
Always (always)
All night (all night)

Please come to save me from these fools (always)
All night (always)
Always (all night)

Love replied to me through you (always)
