

Laurel Canyon

The Church

All those times we parted
All those times we saw it through
Couldn't finish what I started
I was diminished without you

There's music in my memory
And I listen as the miles go by
I guess I'm only temporary
Like a love song flowing by

Going to Laurel Canyon
Finding my own way
In some cool dimension
Where it's always Saturday

Said that I was always welcome
When we said goodbye in the harshest lights
I sense that should that will come again
I'd find a hundred men to mind you get out alright

And even as I stand here
I understand there has been some mistake
And even as I roam here
That lonesome sound, that old heartbreak

Going to Laurel Canyon
Finding my own way
In some cool dimension
Where that is I just can't say
I just can't say

Where the birds are singing vespers
The four rivers bringing out my best
In this place forgive our trespasses
Unless there's more, much more to confess

Going to Laurel Canyon
Finding my own way
In some cool dimension
Where you can never hide away
