

Nervous Breakthrough

The Church

I don't know your name
I saw you from a distance
I thought I'd try to break through
We weren't gonna come
Now here we are all suddenly
And it's never what you think

Anyhow that's yesterday
When you was half a world away
If you're not brave imagine me
In the void of metamorphoses
Anyhow let's do it now
I must sustain myself somehow

It's so nice to be here
I'm thinking I could stay a while
Nice to eat, I mean meet someone new
You're so soft
And tender and so splendid
Come highly recommended
If you were me what would you...

Anyway that's yesterday
When you were half a world away
If you're not brave imagine me
In the void of metamorphoses
Anyhow let's do it now
I must sustain myself somehow

Why do you look so angry with me now
Have I said something true?
It's ok, I really didn't mean it
Really didn't matter to me

Anyway that's yesterday
When you were half a world away
If you're not brave imagine me
In the void of metamorphoses
Anyhow let's do it now
I must sustain myself somehow
