

All Of This And More

The City Harmonic

I have breathed in deep the sweetest scent of spring,
I've been silenced by the stars
I've been lost in melody that Made me weep and said,
"Oh, how great Thou art"

You are more
You are more
You are all of this and more
More than a fleeting touch
More than just flesh and blood
More than a mystery
You're all of this and more
More than a promise kept
More than my life and death
More than a miracle
You're all of this and more
All of this and more

You have whispered silently of all You've done for me
It took my breath away
You have opened wide the arms of love Divine and shown such amazing grace

You are more
You are more
You are who all this is for
You are more
You are more
You are all of this and more
More than a fleeting touch
More than just flesh and blood
More than a mystery
You're all of this and more
More than a promise kept
More than my life and death
More than a miracle
You're all of this and more

It's never enough to say I need You
More than anything else
'cause I need You like a fire needs the air to feel alive
More than a fleeting touch
More than just flesh and blood
More than a mystery
More than a promise kept
More than a miracle
All of this and more
