The Bantry Girls Lament

The Clancy Brothers

1 * * 57 Who will plow the field now, and who will sow the corn 1 * * 57 Who will wash the sheep now, and keep them neatly shorn 4 1 * 57 The stack that's in the haggard, un-touched it may re-main 1 * 4 57 1 Since Johnny went a-thrashing all in the wars of Spain CHORUS: 4 * 1 * Johnny, lovely Johnny, he's sailing o'er the main 1 * 4 57 1 A-long with other patriots, to fight the King of Spain And the girls from the bawn-oag in sorrow may re-tire The piper and his bellows, (may) go home and blow the fire At fairs and hurling matches, your likes we seldom see Till you come home a-gain to us, a-storeen oag mo cree And a cruel fate will not permit our Johnny to re-turn His heavy loss, we Bantry girls will never cease to mourn We re-sign ourselves to our sad lot, and die in grief and pain Johnny died for freedom's sake in the foreign lands of Spain