Losing My Mind

The Cranberries

Come into bed, switch off the light Close your eyes, sleep tonight Think of all the things we did today You touch me then, we fall apart I lose control, the hardest part I wish that it could be another way Hu-u-a-a

Losing, I'm losing, I'm losing my mi-ind Ruining, I'm ruining, you're ruining my mi-ind

You cut me deep like broken glass I wonder when this time will pass Or will I fall asunder everyday? Sitting here beside the fire, The flames they grow just like desire Will I fall asunder everyday? Hu-u-a-a

Ha-a, la-a La-a, ha-a La-a-a-a, la-a, la-a La-a-a-a, la-a, la-a
