

The Way

The Cross Movement

The cross reconciles where sin is known to sever
that's why when beats and rhymes are sewn together we extol the God whose enthroned forever
He storms the weathers and stills them chooses fates and seals them revives His children takes empty lives and fills them who's willin' to come unto the major player who paid the wager of all ya'll Savior-haters and changed the nature of your condition and position sin sick to healthy, hellbound to hell free
He inhabited frailty conquered the grave got death and hell's keys His side of the story compels me to say, "Hail Thee!"
To the Emperor, Sin-bearer
the riches of His wisdom and knowledge turns men from error

[Chorus]

We know the Way
We speak the truth
We live the life
'cause He's the Lord
(4x)

Eternal light of men came to give sight to men the same light that shines blinds men who in their own eyes are wisemen Fallen in their human ways, their dooms displayed
'cause they refuse to remove the shades and consume the rays of the Light-Giver
The Gospel's an offense
I'm aware of the hostility it might trigger People wanna battle 'n fight
'cause they can't handle the Light They're still stuck in the mode of foreshadows 'n types After the Dark Ages came illumination meaning the Son was made visible like the fourth day of creation To expose the deeds of men so we can see our sin then see the need for Him to bleed for men

[Chorus]

I think it's sad how men try to grasp the divine truth of God
when without Christ
God and man clash
like pokadots and plaid
They say our doctrine's bad as if explainin' God is a drop in the bag Divine truths are concealed unless God chooses to reveal what we believe is by faith there's no need to prove it's real

"The Bible's corrupt!"
Well, that's the phrase that's getting' old Bottom line, you're blind to the mysteries of the written code
Are you among those whom the Son knows?
Does your hope rest in the fact that the Son rose?
When it comes to trust people are placin' bad bets what can be proved requires no faith to accept false teachers writin' bad checks
Don't be deceived
Many believe in God
but what about God do they believe?
Is he like the old man with the long beard
you've seen in cartoons?
Did He board the mothership and fly to the back of the moon?
In Revelations is He the A and the Z or is He gonna come back and say He lied about who He claimed to be?
Did He suffer in hell for sin or was His death enough?
Trust solo Cristo minus the extra stuff

[Chorus]
