

Death Is The Hunter

The Crown

Death is the hunter - Breathing down your neck
The Force that will tear - Your forthless life to shreads
The stench of fear upon your dying breath
Charging forth
I am the hunter by death possessed
Prowling - Insane from hunger - Bt terror blessed
I raging thirst for death - Behold the endless depths
A surge of power - In darkness I descend
Your souls are mine - Together down the line
Through your death I am reborn in a crimson tide
There will be no mercy given
From my blood-stained scythe
Death is The Hunter
I am the hunter - Stalking - defenseless prey
Through your death I am reborn
In me you'll find your bane
Watching as the innocent they flee
You know there's no escape
Beware my killing spree
Through your death I am reborn in a crimson tide
There will be no mercy given
From my blood-stained scythe
The grin across my face
The hunger in my stare
As I feed upo your fear
I am the hunter - Your worst fucking nightmare
Death your release - I will set you free!
Death is the hunter - Breathing down on your neck
The Force that will tear - Your worthless life to shreads
I am the hunter - Stalking - defenseless prey
Through your death I am reborn
In me you'll find your bane
