

Desolation Domain

The Crown

Follow the path of the righteous
Leading the way to paradise
Aim and release the load
The only way to sacrifice

Spawned the same way
To meet the same end
Like lambs to the slaughter
Through the infernal

Devoured by this doom
With haunting screams calling out
The sight of it unfolds
Diminished from the plains
To the rim of fire

Blood of your enemies spilled
Enter the path of the unforgiving
Morphing into nothingness
War is always meaningless
Awakening of a death machine
Cursing the grounds which it treads
Heroes, killers who is who?
As we stand among the severed heads

Spawned the same way
To meet the same end
Like lambs to the slaughter
Through the infernal

The sun donates its rays
To boil the blood of the damned
Forsaken prayers not heard
Seeking solace in war
Profane ethereal void
Consumes the darkest of hearts
Cometh down to curse the cattle

The fury of its wings
Makes deceitful marks
On blasphemous souls
Who betray for gold

Trespass and you shall burn
Carry out your mission
The pain of all you slaughter
Price for your treason is

Damned blood
Damned blood
Damned blood
Damned blood

Unseen and insane
A tower of darkness unable to climb
Exiled and neutralized
Centuries throb within the blood

Within the blood

Follow the path of the righteous
Aim and release the pain
The only way desolation domain

Spawned the same way
To meet the same end
To meet the same end
