

A Spy In The House Of Love

The dB's

Someone should tell you the rules of the road
Things most people learned a long time ago
Don't give a hug where a handshake will do
And since you don't see that, it only goes to prove
Someone should tell you
Someone should tell you
Someone should tell you and it won't be me
'Cause I'm just a spy in the house of love
(I'm just a spy in the house of love)
I'm just a spy in the house of love
(I'm just a spy in the house of love)

Someone should tell you all about Earth
Things most people learn like how much you're really worth
Oh, to yourself, and to your family and friends
You know you are
You're just like a party and the party never ends
Someone should tell you
Someone should tell you
Someone should tell you and it won't be me
'Cause I'm just a spy in the house of love
(I'm just a spy in the house of love)
I'm just a spy in the house of love
(I'm just a spy in the house of love)

Someone should tell you
Someone should tell you
Someone should tell you and it won't be me
'Cause I'm just a spy in the house of love
(I'm just a spy in the house of love)
I'm just a spy in the house of love
(I'm just a spy in the house of love)

Someone should tell you
Someone should tell you
Someone should tell you and it won't be me
'Cause I'm just a spy in the house of love
(I'm just a spy in the house of love)
I'm just a spy in the house of love
(I'm just a spy in the house of love)
