

Suspicious

The Dead Rabbits

Secrets lie in the shadows
There's so much that they don't know
I'll take the truth straight to my grave
They purge and purge its so insane

There's something more to this
That we have missed
Things around here are suspicious
Suspicious

They torture me but I wont speak
Honestly my futures bleak
I hold it in and grit my teeth
They will never get to me

There's something more to
This that we have missed
Things around here are suspicious
Locked in the gallows
Save me
Save me
There's no escaping what you've done
There's no escaping what you've done
What have you done?!

There's no escaping
There's no escaping
There's no escaping
There's no escaping
What have you done?!
What have you done?!
What have you done?!

There's something more to
This that we have missed
Things around here are suspicious
Suspicious
Locked in the gallows
Save me, save me
There's no escaping what you've done
What have you done?!
