

Widower

The Dillinger Escape Plan

You were a face in the crowd
I Threw myself onto you
I tried to take you away
I didn't know how to do

But I could not give you the most
Some things I said were never true
Yet still we clung to a ghost
I feel so bad you never knew

I felt like you should know but I could not tell you so

When you walked away I breathed your name
As you walked away
As you walked away

We can never get back what we choose to throw away

When you walked away I breathed your name
As you walked away
As you walked away

We can never get back what we choose to throw away

I don't know how to hold onto something
That seems determined to grow by the day
Every time, I think I can handle
You only seem to get farther away
I never realized just how hard it was for a person like me to do
For a person like me to do

When you walked away I breathed your name
As you walked away
As you walked away

We can never get back what we choose to throw away

When you walked away I breathed your name
As you walked away
As you walked away

We can never get back what we choose to throw away

I couldn't watch you wishing for something
That seemed more impossible by the day
Anytime I saw your expression
I only seemed to run farther away
I never realized just how hard this was for a person like me to do

Obsessed with thoughts that deform
Held on by hope too well worn
Crippled because of dreams that eclipse reality
Crashing into truths we don't perceive
We don't perceive

I couldn't hold on to
The things that mattered to you

It was my big mistake
Thinking there were two roads to take

As you walked away
As you walked away

As you walked away
As you walked away

As you walked away
As you walked away

As you walked away
As you walked away