One Hand

The Dirty Heads

We live like titans we live immortal the uninvited the other side of the road we are the right hand you are the mortar we'll build you up and then make you the cornerstone See mirrored mountains painted in water We will disturb them jump in and bring 'em to life

Ohhhhhhhhhhh
One hand comes after the other
Ohhhhhhhhhhh
No time to run for cover
Ohhhhhhhhhhhh
feels like I'm climbin forever
Ohhhhhhhhhhhh
One hand comes after the other

I feel the weight of the world upon my shoulders
It feels like the weather outside is getting colder
No sense in hiding, I just keep climbing
The sky is the limit and that's right behind me
I can feel it coming down harder than before God speed, keep steady man heavy is the storm be warned and be told time won't wait for the helpless
I'll rest when I'm dead till then I'm livin restless
Yes you can't hold me down cause my confidence is constant I'm killin this shit death with Charles Bronson look around man the whole world is watching
What you gonna say, take caution

Ohhhhhhhhhhh
One hand comes after the other
Ohhhhhhhhhhh
No time to run for cover
Ohhhhhhhhhhhh
feels like I'm climbin forever
Ohhhhhhhhhhhhh

One hand comes after the other

(One hand comes after the other One hand comes after the other)

Realizing everything in life is beautiful,
I know this world can make us crazy act like animals
I've seen the worst and now I know there's always brighter days
Once you reach the bottom ups the only other way
I keep on climbing till I find just what I'm lookin for Can't stop me now I'm going to climb until I can't no more
We take our chances and sometimes they have the price to pay
That's just the way it goes, there ain't no other way

Ohhhhhhhhhhh
One hand comes after the other
Ohhhhhhhhhhhh
No time to run for cover

Ohhhhhhhhhhh One hand comes after the other Ohhhhhhhhhhh
No time to run for cover
Ohhhhhhhhhhh
Feels like I'm climbin forever
Ohhhhhhhhhhh
One hand comes after the other

One hand comes after the other One hand comes after the other One hand comes after the other One hand comes after the other
