

Thirty Days

The Drifters

Thirty days, you've been gone
Thirty nights, wait too long
You've been gone
Thirty days and thirty nights

Thirty days, missing you
Thirty nights, feeling blue
Missing you
Thirty days and thirty nights

Baby come back, come back
Come back to me
Well I'm sinking fast
Like a rock gas under sea

Thirty days, all alone
Thirty nights, I have known
All alone
Thirty days and thirty nights

Thirty days, I missed you so
Thirty nights, don't you know
I missed you so
Thirty days and thirty nights

Baby come back, come back
Come back to me
Well I'm sinking fast
Like a rock gas under sea

Thirty days, all alone
Thirty nights, I have known
All alone
Thirty days and thirty nights

Thirty days, missed you so
Thirty nights, don't you know
I missed you so
Thirty days and thirty nights

I missed you so
Thirty days and thirty nights
Missed you so
Thirty days and thirty nights
