Scorn Not His Simplicity

The Dubliners

See the child With the golden hair yet eyes that show the emptiness inside Do we know Can we understand just how he feels or have we really tried See him now As he stands alone and watches children play a children's game Simple child He looks almost like the others yet they know he's not the same Scorn not his simplicity But rather try to love him all the more Scorn not his simplicity Oh no Oh no See him stare Not recognising the kind face that only yesterday he loved The loving face Of a mother who can't understand what she's been guilty of How she cried tears of happiness The day the doctor told her it's a boy Now she cries tears of helplessness And thinks of all the things he can't enjoy Scorn not his simplicity But rather try to love him all the more Scorn not his simplicity Oh no Oh no Only he knows how to face the future Hopefully surrounded by despair He won't ask for your pity or your sympathy But surely you should care Scorn not his simplicity But rather try to love him all the more Scorn not his simplicity Oh no Oh no Oh no
