

Agoraphobic

The Duskfall

So you think you are safe, and nothing can hurt you
It's all an illusion, created from lies Made yourself a safehouse, no one can get in
But you are the prisoner, in your imaginary world

You should take a look - at the concrete maze cause you'll die alone

Yes your loosening grip, though you never had control
Never going back, cause insanity takes hold
And now you're walking away...

And in the dark corners, your demons dwell
Haunting your mind, infecting the cells
You're lost in your hallways, the walls are closing in Built your house for protection, and now you're crippled by fear
