

Saturday

The Enemy

Saturday Saturday
Saturday Saturday

Dead end friends on the washing line
Lining up for a dressing down
Frosty milkman in the morning
Desperate breakfast in a boring town

Take a look around and see what you wanna see
There's a train tonight we'll leave when you wanna leave.

Saturday Saturday will make it all ok
Saturday Saturday will make it all ok
Saturday Saturday will make it all ok
Saturday Saturday will make it all ok

Condensation on the window
Hides the sorrow of a weirdo's tears
Burnt out bins behind the station
Vandals lack imagination round here

Saturday Saturday will make it all ok
Saturday Saturday will make it all ok
Saturday Saturday will make it all ok
Saturday Saturday will make it all ok

Take a look around and see what you wanna see
Live the dreams you had and be who you wanna be
There's a train tonight
We'll leave when you want to leave when you want
If you've seen the light
Then be who you want to be, who you want

There's a train tonight
We'll leave when you want to, leave when you want
If you've seen the light
Then be who you want to, be who you want

Saturday Saturday
Saturday Saturday
Saturday Saturday will make it all ok
Saturday Saturday will make it all ok
