

The Adventures of Allan Gordon

The Fall of Troy

All this time alone,
I could not go home,
Artificial friend,
You reap what you sew,

You said,
It was the middle of something else,
I love,
That you lose it all,

Cause' you are the one that made me feel better,
And this is just fucked up either way,
I don't understand what you say,

All this time you've known,
it's condescending tone,
That's what tears are, man,
They make you feel everything,

You said,
It was a little of something else,
I love,
that you lose it all,

Cause you are the one that made me feel better,
And this is just fucked up either way,
I don't understand what you say,
