

Soon your world will be a part of me
The sooner we wake, the sooner we all will see
Soon your world will be a part of me
Cos the sooner we wake, the sooner we all will see

And all the friends that you sought out
That didn't have to pay
You're an emotional allstar
And all the friends who loved you lost
You're an emotional allstar
A victim of love and loss

I'm breaking the silence from morning to come
I'm breaking the world to rescue the sun
I'm crushing the souls of the weak and the damned
I'm taking you on with my master plan
I'm letting you in, I'm taking you out
And every second I get, I'm second guessing myself

Cos all the friends that you sought out
That didn't have to pay
You're an emotional allstar
Then all the friends who loved you lost
You're an emotional allstar
A victim of love and loss

Soon your world will be a part of me
Soon your world will be a part of me
Soon your world will be a part of me
Soon your world will be a part of me

And all the friends that you sought out
That didn't have to pay
You're an emotional allstar
And all the friends who loved you lost
You're an emotional allstar
A victim of love and loss

You're an emotional allstar
You're an emotional allstar
You're an emotional allstar
A victim of love and loss
